

Paracoat Roof Coating

Siplast Paracoat brings the high performance advantages of PMMA to a roof coating designed to protect smooth and granule-surfaced roof systems from the effects of weathering and chemical attack. The result is a roof coating that, unlike conventional acrylic coatings:

- Can be applied in one coat that cures in 45 minutes.
- Resists ponding water.
- Achieves UL Class A up to 3/4-inch.

Siplast

1000 Rochelle Blvd.,
Irving, Texas 75062
469-995-2200
Facsimile: 469-995-2205

In Canada:
201 Bewicke Ave., Suite 208
Vancouver, BC, Canada V7M 3M7
604-929-7687

Customer Service in North America:
Toll Free 1-800-922-8800

www.siplast.com

An Icopal Group Company

www.siplast.com

For information on Siplast Roofing and Waterproofing Systems, scan our QR code.

Paracoat Roof Coating is multi-component, fast curing, flexible, and is supplied in a standard color, white. Paracoat is also available in the colors gray and sand on a special-made-to-order basis. White and sand-colored Paracoat offer greater than 75% reflectance for cool roof applications. For availability of custom Paracoat Roof Coating colors and a list of roof systems over which Paracoat Roof Coating can be used, please call 1-800-922-8800.

